

ROLE: Legal Graduate Scheme

COMPANY: LJM Solicitors

LJM Solicitors is a full-service law firm dedicated to providing outstanding, practical, clear, affordable and creative solutions for commercial organisations and private individuals.

Our reputation is built on the range of extensive expertise offered by our partners and strong team members. We represent clients across a range of areas from personal injury claims to clinical negligence to corporate and commercial, to litigation and employment matters.

What we are looking for:

- A bright, enthusiastic candidate with proven academic abilities and a genuine desire for a career in law.
- An able and committed team player, who enjoys legal research, practical problem-solving and has the ability to think creatively.
- Strong verbal and written communication skills.
- An ability to cope with responsibility and the desire to immediately add value to the firm.

You must have:

- Completed either a law degree, minimum grade of 2:1.
- Or a non-law degree, minimum grade of 2:1, along with the GDL.

You will gain:

Comprehensive experience/training and be given the opportunity to join an ambitious, dynamic and forward thinking law firm. You will gain experience across different areas of the practice; our work includes general commercial, personal injury, property, litigation and private client.

During your training, you will be involved in intellectually challenging work and be provided with the support needed to flourish into an outstanding professional.
